

SCHOFIELD IS AHEAD.

Convention in Session, But No Ballot Taken.

UPHAM'S STRENGTH SAID TO BE WANING.

Marinette Man's Friends Claim 121 Votes.

THIS THEY WILL HAVE AT THE START.

There Will Be No Nomination Before
To-Morrow Afternoon, for the Number of Candidates in the Race Makes Progress Slow—Cham Ingersoll a Member of the State Central Committee—W. W. Clarke Temporary Secretary.

MILWAUKEE, July 24.—Not until tomorrow afternoon will Wisconsin republicans have a candidate.

Schofield bids fair to be the man.
His friends now claim 121 votes on the first ballot.

Should this claim be well founded his nomination is almost assured.

The convention was called to order at 12 by Chairman Thom and Eugene S. Elliot of Milwaukee was made chairman. Elliot's speech was a rousing one. The temporary organization was completed by making W.
W. Clarke, of Rock, and B. F. Grant, of the Eighth district temporary secretaries.

At one o'clock a recess was taken until 3. The First district's representation on committees was fixed as follows:

State Central Committee—Cham Ingersoll, Beloit; M. T. Parks, Elkhorn.
Committee on Resolutions—Judge Wilson, Darlington.

Committee on Permanent Organization—L. Rice, Racine.

When the convention came to order at 3:30 it was still far from a ballot.
Schofield had been gaining strength however. A caucus of the delegates from the Eighth district (Upham's), showed fifteen votes for Schofield and only four for Upham.

SENATOR HILL AGAIN TALKING.

He Speaks in Defense of the President's Letter.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—As soon as the senate met Senator Faulkner went about the democratic side notifying senators of a conference at 8 o'clock yesterday. When the members of the steering committee were asked as to why no nomination was given to Senator Hill, they replied: "This is a conference of friends of the tariff bill and only the senators friendly to the measure will be asked to attend."

When at 12:28 Mr. Harris, the floor manager of the tariff bill, called up the conference report almost every seat on the floor was occupied. Senator Hill of New York was on his feet and was immediately recognized for a speech.

Mr. Hill said he was in sympathy with the President's letter to Chairman Wilson. Its sentiments were his sentiments. The President violated no clause of the constitution when he sent that letter. He had the right to do it. It was a private communication. The question as to making it public was one to be decided by the sender and receiver. It was one with which senators had nothing to do. No democrat on this floor could convert the position taken by Mr. Cleveland in that letter.

Continuing, Mr. Hill again defined his attitude in opposition to the income tax, after which he pointed out the inconsistency of his democratic colleagues when they placed a duty on coal and iron on the ground of revenue and it left wool untaxed. A revenue tariff bill must be consistent.
His own idea was that all articles should bear their due proportion of taxation except the necessities of life, like tea, coffee, sugar, etc., unless the absolute exigencies of the treasury demanded a revenue duty on sugar.

"I shall vote to perfect this bill," continued Mr. Hill. "I shall vote for free coal, free iron ore, and free sugar."

Mr. Caffery followed Mr. Hill, first moving that conferees be instructed to make the following amendment:
"That the bounty provided in said act shall stand unrepealed to the extent that there shall be paid to the producer of sugar from beets, sorghum or sugar cane grown in the United States in the year 1894, or from maple sap produced in the United States during the year 1894 under license for 1894, and subject to the limitations now imposed by law on all sugars testing not less than 90 degrees by the polariscope, nine-tenths of one cent per pound; and upon all such sugars testing less than 90 per cent by the polariscope and not less than 60 degrees eight-tenths of one cent per pound."

Mr. Caffery proceeded to discuss the sugar schedule of the McKinley bill and this brought out the animated though technical debate on sugar making between Senators Aldrich, Gray, Caffery and Allison. The latter stated that it had been asserted that about 86 per cent of sugars grown in Louisiana would receive the benefit of the one-eighth cent differential. Mr.
Caffery said the per centage would be about 74.

Mr. Caffery's speech was still in progress at 3:05 o'clock Mr. Cockrell secured recognition to move an adjournment, which motion was adopted and the senate adjourned.

DEMOCRATS IN CAUCUS.

Nothing Definite Decided and Another Meeting to Be Held.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The democrats of the senate yesterday arranged for a caucus and at 3 o'clock the senate adjourned and the democratic members walked into the marble room and closed the doors. Senators Hill, Murphy and Irby were the only absentees.
Senator Hill was not notified of the intention to hold a caucus until the last minute and then declined to enter it because of his attitude on the bill.
The caucus continued for three hours and without reaching any conclusion or taking a vote on any proposition adjourned until to-day at 3 o'clock, when another will be held. It was recognized from the beginning that Senator Vilas' motion to strike out the differential duty on sugar occupied a most important position in the present controversy and several senators intimated that until there could be as-urances of its withdrawal no conclusion could be reached in caucus.

The only motion made during the afternoon was one by Senator Jarvis to send the bill back to conference without instructions, and while nothing like a vote was taken the indications now are that this motion will prevail in the end.

Senator Smith said that he knew of four democratic senators who would vote against the bill if the proposition of Mr. Vilas should prevail.

Sensors Blanchard and Caffery of Louisiana asked that the conference committee be asked to retain that feature and the 40 per cent ad valorem, and to add the one-tenth of a cent additional on sugar imported from countries paying a bounty on sugar and to also continue for this year enough of the bounty paid under the McKinley law on sugar grown in this country to make the duty equal to 2 cents a pound. Senator Blanchard said that if the sugar schedule was made less protective than at present then he would vote to postpone the bill indefinitely.

Senator Vilas and those who stood with him, including Senators Mills and Palmer, expressed great concern over the passage of a bill of some character and united in saying that, while they considered the senate bill as preferable to the McKinley law, they thought the chances for the passage of a bill would be greatly improved by the elimination of the differential, on account of the temper of the house.
They indicated a willingness to withdraw the Vilas motion in case an agreement could be reached on a proposition for a straight ad valorem duty, and some of those present formed the impression that they would be willing to raise the rate from 40 to 45 per cent.
Senator Palmer advanced this proposition.

Lays the Blame on Inspectors.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Chairman Frick of the Carnegie Steel company was a witness before the Naval committee in the armor-plate investigation yesterday. Mr. Frick's testimony consisted mainly of a denial of the statements of workmen who had been employed in the making of the armor plates. He claimed that if any worthless plates had been placed on warships the Carnegie company was not to blame, but rather the government inspectors, who had neglected their duty. Representative Dooliver asked about the "fake" record testified to as kept by Superintendent Kline. Witness said he knew nothing of such record. He had no knowledge of the plugging of blow-holes in armor plates without the sanction of the government inspectors.

Believe the House Will Recede.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—On the house side of the capitol there is unanimity in the ranks of the democracy in regard to the senate bill and its 490 amendments. In the course of conversation Gen. Black and Congressman Springer both expressed the belief that the house would recede from its disagreement and concur in the amended senate bill if the opportunity should be presented. Fears were expressed, however, that some action might be taken on the matter in the senate which would postpone legislation and result in the practical defeat of the bill.

Guarded Statements by Wilson.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Mr. Wilson says that it is not the tariff but a West Virginia bill in the house that called him here. He was asked if an agreement between the house and senate could be reached if the senate should recede from the one-eighth differential on sugar, and replied:
"The house voted for free sugar emphatically. I do not know that it will change."

THREE MEN KILLED IN A STABLE FIRE.

TWO HUNDRED FINE HORSES
ALSO BURNED.

Immense Knox Stables in Washington Left in Ashes—Six Hundred Thousand Dollar Loss in Chenoa, Ill.—
The Town Almost Wiped Out—Daily Fire Record.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Three firemen were killed, many injured and two hundred horses burned in a fire which swept the Knox stables this morning.
The stables were entirely destroyed, the loss being very heavy.

CHENOA, Ill., July 25.—Six hundred thousand dollars' worth of property was destroyed by fire in one hour yesterday. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a Chicago & Alton south-bound train, as a few minutes after the 12:12 p. m. train passed the livery barn of Clayton Ballinger some one noticed the fire start in the rear of the above frame structure and from its starting place it went until the entire business portion, except two brick buildings and some of the residences, were wiped out.
The loss was total over two entire blocks, which were occupied by the finest buildings of the city.

J. T. McKeever, a tailor, who had rooms in the Hickey block, in order to save his life made a leap out of a window and in the fall landed on a picket iron railing. He is in a serious condition.

The wind, which was blowing from the southwest, assisted the fire in its work of destruction, and it was like a roaring, seething mass of flames, which kept going until they naturally ran out of material. The citizens turned out en masse to save the contents of buildings, but the goods saved are few. Quite a number were overcome by heat and smoke and were glad indeed when they reached a place of safety. The wind carried sparks toward northeast from town so that considerable damage was done to farmers by meadows and outfields being consumed. This is the worst fire Chenoa ever had.

Opera House at Waterloo Burned.

WATERLOO, Ind., July 25.—A spark from a passing engine caused destruction of Waterman's opera house yesterday afternoon. The building contained the armory of company I, Third regiment, with 10,000 rounds of ammunition. The explosion slightly wounded a few people. The citizen's clothes of the company on duty at Hammond were burned. The loss is partly covered by $800 insurance.

Lumber Yard Destroyed.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, July 25.—The lumber yard of Wackerbarth & Blamer was discovered on fire yesterday morning. A portion was consumed, with a large elevator belonging to the same firm. Slight damage was done to the Illinois Central stock yards, Searcliff's elevator and cars on the side track.
Loss, $15,000; partially insured.

Village of Colons Almost Wiped Out.

MOLINE, Ill., July 25.—The village of Colons, Henry county, was almost wiped out by fire yesterday. George Brown's general store, C. W. Reese's drug store, and Grassou's shoe store were burned with most of their contents, besides a granary, ice house, etc. Loss, $15,000; partly insured.

Electric Light Plant Blown Up.

PERRY, Iowa, July 25.—The combined water and electric light plant was blown to atoms at 7:30 last evening by the explosion of the boiler.
One man was fatally injured. Loss, $12,000. The city is now without water or light, most of the wells being dry.

Miss Willard Welcomed Home.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Several hundred members of the Fourth Illinois district of the Woman's Christian Temperance union united yesterday afternoon in giving a reception for Miss Frances E. Willard in honor of her return to her home in Evanston after two years abroad.

Reed Is Renominated.

BIDDEFORD, Maine, July 25.—Representative Thomas B. Reed was renominated by the republican convention of the First Congressional district yesterday.

Populist Warden Is Exonerated.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 25.—The investigation of the populist warden of the Kansas state penitentiary ended at noon yesterday, when the prison board exonerated the accused from all charges made.

JAPANESE TROOPS PRESS FORWARD.

FORCES ADVANCE ON COREAN TERRITORY TO-DAY.

King of the Beleaguered Country Is Hiding and Is Supposed To Be in the Chinese Residency—Others Think He Has Been Kidnapped by Japs.

YOKAHAMA, July 25.—The Japanese troops in Corea have begun a forward movement against the Chinese troops in the same territory.

TACOMA, Wash., July 25.—Private advices received here confirm the report of a battle between Koreans and Japanese at Seoul. The Korean king is in hiding and is supposed to be at the Chinese residency. Chinese and Japanese troops are located at all neighboring ports. Russia has landed 1,000 soldiers at Gensan, the northern port on the west coast of Corea. The Chinese consul at Nagasaki, Japan, has ordered all Chinese subjects to leave.
Koreans and Chinese engaged in a battle July 12 with Tungais rebels and a large number were killed. It is reported that the Korean king has been kidnapped by the Japanese.
Eight Japanese and three Chinese men-of-war and 20,000 troops are at Gensan on the east coast of Corea.
Trouble is imminent at that place.

Blockading River a Fine Move.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The action of the Chinese government in closing the Yangtze-Kiang river on account of the complication with Japan growing out of the Korean occupation is regarded by naval officers as a most important strategic move from a defensive point of view. Shanghai, one of the most populous and wealthy cities in China, is situated on the Woosung river a short distance beyond its junction with the Yangtze.

The Woo-Sung bar at the mouth of the tributary made the navigation extremely difficult and the Chinese government has prudently refused to heed the off-repeated suggestions of European commercial powers that the channel be improved at this point. As it is the sinking of a few junks loaded with stone in the narrow and crooked channel will easily and effectually close the Yangtze and Woo-Sung above, thus protecting Shanghai on the Woosung and also the enormously expensive ordnance factory near the Yangtze, which would be simply invaluable in case of hostilities.

PRESIDENT DEBS TO STAND TRIAL

Motion to Dismiss the Suit Denied—Big Crowd Witness the Proceedings.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Eugene V. Debs and his cabinet will have to stand trial for contempt of court in disobeying an injunction of the United States Circuit court. The motion to dismiss the writ of attachment against President Debs and his associates was denied yesterday by Judges Grosceup and Woods. The decision was rendered by Judge Woods. The hearing proper in the contempt will begin this morning at 10 o'clock.

For an hour before the doors of the United States circuit court opened yesterday a crowd stood awaiting admistance. Debs, Howard, Kelher and Rogers were brought over early from the county jail.

It was 10:15 when Judges Woods and Grosceup entered. They were preceded a few minutes by the defendants.

District Attorney Milchrist called the attention of the court to sections of the United States statutes conferring power upon the courts to deal with wrongs against interstate commerce and interference with the United States mails, and allowing, the attorney claimed, the filing of bills in equity to enforce these laws.

Mr. Milchrist then Judge Drummond, who held that such a case was not a criminal case, but partook, merely, of some of the elements of a criminal case. The supreme court of Michigan has defined contempt of court as a quasi criminal offense.

"It was contended yesterday," continued Mr. Milchrist, "that it would be illegal to try this case without a jury. I never knew a contempt case to be tried by a jury. If the contempt has occurred out of the presence and hearing of the court, all the court desires to get is the proof as to whether the man did violate the order of the court. Simply that an indictment is pending in some other court is the misfortune of the defendants with which this court has nothing to do. This court has to deal with the question whether these men have set aside contemptuously the order of this and violated its injunction, which was properly awarded. If the answer of the defendant is conclusive against the government, then it shows the weakness of the law."

Mr. Erwin replied to Mr. Milchrist.
He said this is a court of equity; this is not a court of law, a court sitting under an institution so venerable, so old, so well established that it makes no changes in its rules of conscience. "It is a court," he said, "which arose from the very necessities of human judgment to form a perfect set of laws.
It is a court, in fact, to enforce the rule of conscience, applying remedy where the law was deficient. Law could not cover all conditions; it could but enter a general rule. So the courts began to exercise the rights of conscience. It was asked yesterday, "What is the logic, the reasoning, in the decisions that the answer of the defendant is conclusive?" Equity will never sit, nor ever listen nor open the portals of its conscience when there is a plain remedy at law. In equity when the defendant by solemn oath denied the contempt, then arose instantly the plain and adequate remedy at law by a prosecution for perjury. We hold that this information is filed in equity and that the answer is final, because the government has a plain and adequate remedy in a prosecution of perjury."

"Would it be a vindication of the dignity of the court to have a man convicted of perjury?" asked Judge Woods.

"That would refer back to the original institution of the court," answered Mr. Erwin. "It is a grave question as to what this bill does stand on. We could produce a number of authorities here to show where the courts have acted in contempt cases and the United States courts have interposed by a writ of habeas corpus and reviewed the action of these courts."

Mr. Bancroft, counsel for the Santa Fe road, followed Mr. Erwin. Mr.
Bancroft took the position that there was nothing unusual or remarkable about the present proceedings.

"Several startling propositions were advanced this morning," said Mr. Bancroft. "One of them was that a court of equity affords a wider door of escape to a man charged with a criminal offense than does a court of law.
Another was that because men for acts committed were amenable to a criminal court, they were therefore not responsible in damages for their acts in a civil court. Now this answer, even though it were a proceeding at law is not sufficient to excuse these men of the offenses charged.
The allegations in the information are based upon the order entered in this proceeding. These respondents by this information are advised of the strike and boycott which were in existence in this country. They knew what was charged by violation of this order."

At the conclusion of Mr. Bancroft's argument Mr. Geeting made the closing address on behalf of the defendants. He said there was one question he wanted to preserve, and that question was as to whether the bill itself is well taken and whether the United States can be a plaintiff in an injunction suit, it having no property interests in the interstate commerce. The district attorney, he said, had presented the United States statutes as an authority. He did not think the antitrust act covered this case at all.

After the conclusion of Mr. Geeting's remarks Judges Woods and Grosceup conferred together for a few minutes, and then Judge Woods announced the decision of the court.

LILILOKALANI'S PROTEST.

Further Hawaiian Correspondence Sent to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The President submitted to the senate to-day as part of the Hawaiian correspondence a letter from Minister Willis, dated June 23, in which that official reports the receipt, on June 31, of a protest signed by Liliuokalani, residing from her standpoint the facts prior and subsequent to the overthrow of the monarchy, protesting against all such acts and "earnestly requesting" that the United States "will not extend its recognition to any such government thus formed." Minister Willis refrained from forwarding the communication, but in his personal capacity consulted regarding it with Mr. Parker, the last minister of foreign affairs under the monarchy to whom he represented that the senate's action in the premises should be regarded as final.

THINK WELLMAN IS LOST.

Experienced Skippers Are of the Opinion
That the Arctic Party Perished.

LONDON, July 25.—Carl Siewers writes to the Standard that he is in receipt of advices from Norway that leave little doubt that the Wellman Arctic expedition is lost.

Experienced skippers just returned from the Spitzbergen seas express the same opinion and Col. Fielding, who accompanied Capt. Nare's expedition in 1875, shares this belief.

The Pall Mall Gazette is in receipt of similar advices from Tromsø, all confirming the general belief in the fate of the expedition.

BURIED EIGHTEEN FEET.

Three Bricklayers and a Boy Killed by a Caving at Winona.

WINONA, Minn., July 25.—By the caving in of the walls of a cavern today at the Young Ladies' Catholic Seminary three bricklayers and a boy nine years old were buried under eighteen feet of earth and brick. A force of men were at once started to digging, but all were dead when found.

Following are names of dead:
JOSEPH SCHNEIDER.
ALBERT STANEK.
MIKE KULASA.
HENRY GRIEBACH.

Clay Davis Killed.

PERRY, O. T., July 25.—Clay Davis, a member of the Dalton gang and a horse thief, was killed sixteen miles east of here by Sheriff J. M. Taylor.
Davis and Bud Appling were liberated from jail here during a fire and officers found them secreted in a hut near the town of Morrison. A battle occurred and Davis was killed and Appling wounded. Appling was a prizefighter

ANARCHIST STONES PULLMAN'S HOUSE.

NEARLY ALL THE WINDOWS ARE BROKEN OUT.

Simon Reskin, the Orator of the Chicago Reds, Did the Work, and Is Under Arrest—Says He Will Fir-ish the Palace Car Magnate Yet.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Simon Reskin, the anarchist speaker, made an assault this morning on the Pullman residence. He broke out nearly all the windows and when stopped said he would fix Pullman yet. He is under arrest. Officer William Lindgren, detailed for special duty in the stock yards district, shot two men who attempted to interfere with a Grand Trunk train at Forty-ninth and Loomis streets yesterday afternoon.
Both of the injured men escaped arrest after beating the officer almost into insensibility.

None of the striking butchers returned to work yesterday, nor do they evince the slightest disposition to do so. The Second regiment and other military companies are preparing to leave the stock yards. Col. Moulton yesterday had a telegram from Gen.
Wheeler instructing him to withdraw all soldiers from picket duty. Hereafter the police will act as guards and the military will be massed in squads at convenient points subject to call. Some night switching is now being done.

HELPS END THE TROUBLE.

Vice-President Stevenson's Part in Settling a Strike.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 25.—The strike of the McLean county coal miners, which began three months ago, came to an end this morning, when 230 miners and 120 helpers went to work, which number will be increased largely in a few days as soon as the shaft is in proper order. Vice-President Stevenson is the president of the company and in a consultation with the men amicable arrangements were made.

PERU, Ill., July 25.—The Cahill coal mine is running with 150 men, and as many more have applied for work.
The local miners' union sent a committee to the Cahills offering to go back to work in a body, but the committee was informed men were being hired as individuals.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., July 25.—The coal miners belonging to the union struck yesterday, claiming they were being slighted and that new men were being given preference. The coal company posted a notice that all who did not return to work at once would be discharged. Only six miners went to work besides company men and twenty-five drew their pay and were discharged.

MASSILLON, Ohio, July 25.—A meeting of the Massillon coal operators has been called for to-day. The resident operators all plead ignorance of the purpose of the meeting, but it is surmised a plan has been devised for terminating the strike.

SOUTH MACALISTER, I. T., July 25.—
The Indian Territory miners' strike has been declared off, the miners accepting the company's terms. Work at Krebs will be resumed to-day. This prevents the anticipated riots.

NANAIMO, B. C., July 25.—The wages trouble between the miners of this district and the management of the colliery has been settled by the miners, who have agreed to continue work under the existing rates until the end of the year.

Santa Fe Wants No Union Men.

GROANS OF A GHOST ROUSED BRAVE MEN.

GHASTLY NOISES FROM CHRIST CHURCH RECTORY.

C. E. Pierce and O. W. Bemis are brave, and Sally Forth in Pursuit of the Spectral Invader—They Have Stirring Experiences on a Summer Night.

"Oooooooughoooo!"

It was the most uncanny sound that ever startled the peaceful denizens of the Third ward.

C. E. Pierce's blood froze in his veins.

So did Orrin Bemis'.

Thawing his blood out by means of an alcohol lamp, Mr. Pierce crossed the street, to Mr. Bemis' residence where the latter was found thawing his blood also.

"Shah! Didjuhearit?" Mr. Pierce whispered to Mr. Bemis.

"It's a—ghost. I—can—tell—by—the—groan," quaked Mr. Bemis.

"Are you armed?"

"Yes."

"Let us to the fray or bust, and damned be he who first shall cry enough," remarked Mr. Pierce in his best circuit court style.

A crash echoed through the house but they paid no attention to that. There was blood in the air; blood that was rapidly coagulating too, and they proposed to stop it.

Guns glistened in their belts and knives glittered in their hands, while the moon glittered in the sky and the electric lights glittered in the streets as they sallied forth.

"Oooooooughoooo!" said the ghost.

Falling upon each other's necks, with no collars to break the fall, the two men shivered. Then the congealed blood began to thaw and they became bold. The traced they sound to Rev. A. H. Barrington's residence, the rector and his wife being away on a pleasure trip.

"Spawn of a thousand hell cats! There can be no evil spirits in the home of a minister," said Attorney Pierce. Another crash came from Mr. Bemis' residence, but they heeded not.

Looked the House Through.

"B. B. Eldredge has the keys to the house," said Mr. Bemis, "we will get them."

They did.

Unlocking the front door they lighted the hall gas.

"Oooooooughoooo!" said a ghost and more ice-cream blood formed.

They lighted every gas burner in the house, but no ghost.

"When love comes in the window; evil flies up the chimney," said Attorney Pierce, heading not the third crash from Mr. Bemis' home.

They searched and searched and finally found that the noise came from the water pipes that were not properly shut off. Gathering up the arsenal they turned out the lights. No lemon-ice blood made them feel like Shurtliff's store room any longer;

"We have met the enemy and they are ours," remarked Attorney Pierce as he drank from the kitchen dipper and the fourth crash from Mr. Bemis' house failed to fracture their ear drums.

Then came they forth. When Mr. Bemis got home great was the wreck he saw. When he left there were distributed about the house costly busts of James Owen O'Connor, Muley Hassan, William Shakespeare and Commodore Perry. All lay on the floor in atoms. These were busted busts.

"You should not have used the sayings of these respected gentlemen in vain," remarked Mr. Bemis as he swept up the remains, but Mr. Pierce had fled. That is all.

Death of Mrs. Anna McCafferty's Child—Improvements on Buildings.

WITH THREE WIVES HE NOW REJOICES.

SECOND WARD MAN CLAIMS A LARGE FAMILY.

He Introduces Three Wives to His Friends, and They Wonder if There Hasn't Been a Mistake—Divorce Not Likely Because of a Deserted Woman's Devotion.

A man who claims three wives is the theme of Second ward comment. Three wives are not quite the thing in Second ward social circles, but in this case the neighbors and the first wife seem to be the only ones who object. The first wife broke an umbrella over one of her rivals not long ago, but she dreads appealing to the courts because she does not want a divorce.

"Anything rather than that," she says, and suffers in silence.

For three months she claims she has not received a penny from her husband. He has lost two good situations through his conduct and is now almost without money. A piece of property worth $1,000 is held in his deserted wife's name and he has tried to persuade her to let him mortgage it, but she has had firmness enough to refuse.

CROPS STILL NEED RAIN BADLY

Drouth Nearly As Severe As Before Last Week's Showers Fell.

Showers that fell last week gave temporary relief only, the state crop bulletin says. The soil is now as dry as before, except in the eastern counties, where the rainfall was considerable and vegetation has revived somewhat. Haying is completed and a fair crop secured.

Wheat, rye and barley is about all cut and in stack. The crop is good in some sections and in others below the average.

Oats are now being cut and while the heat and drouth have ripened them too rapidly in most sections, the crop is turning out better than was expected, the early sown especially being fully up to the average. In some counties in the western part of the state the oat crop is very poor.

Potatoes are permanently injured and in some counties the crop will be a partial failure, while in others a fair crop is anticipated.

Corn is doing fairly well. Some fields are showing the effects of drouth, but generally the crop is reported in good condition, though rain would be of great benefit. Tobacco is suffering from drouth but continues to look well.

Pastures are mostly burned up and in some sections stock is being fed.

THEY THREATEN TO STRIKE.

Chicago Firemen and Engineers on the C. & N. W. May Walk Out Again.

The firemen and engineers at West Chicago on the Northwestern promise men who struck some time ago are not reinstated. The lodge to strike if the engineers and the fire of trainmen at Western avenue is about to go up the flue. Out of sixty-five members, forty-eight have been expelled for non-payment of dues. They have gone into the A. R. U.

Ten cars of flour have been lost on the Northwestern enroute from Minneapolis to Chicago and they cannot be found.

Epitaph Left Nothing To Tell.

This is the epitaph that summed up a wife's character as her husband saw it:

Here rests that angel of a woman, ISABELLA GRAHAM CORBIT, Wife of Thomas Brooks, Born in New Jersey in 1825; Died in St. Louis in 1893.

You were always satisfied, content with what you had. I did not have to rob my employer to keep you in extravagance. How pleasant it was to meet you on returning home. God bless you!

MONEY FOR THE Y. M. C. A.

Generous Giving on the Part of Janesville People Urged.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Of vital importance to Janesville citizens is the Y. M. C. A. building. Athens, Georgia, a town smaller than this has a Y. M. C. A. building valued at $30,000 and in nearly every important city of America a building well equipped and attractive to young men is maintained. Janesville has attempted to erect a building for her young men which will cost about $20,000. Twelve thousand dollars have been secured on subscription. The building is in progress of erection and any citizen who will investigate that beautiful structure and with open eyes and heart realize the object of its mission, cannot conscientiously withhold the financial support necessary to complete and equip, free of debt this building that will touch the lives of young men for good, seven days in the week from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.

This good enterprise is before us and appeals to every conscientious citizen from a social, moral and business standpoint.

At Galesburg, Ill., June 5, a proposition was presented by J. T. McKnight to the board of managers and friends of the Y. M. C. A. to give a lot valued from ten to fifteen thousand dollars providing $30,000 would be raised for the erection of a suitable building free of debt. In less than one month $10,000 was secured and the canvass is being pushed with good results. The board of directors of our local Y. M. C. A. desire to inform the public that any gifts to our new building will be received on conditions that the building shall be free of debt. A resolution has been passed and is now on record that the building shall not be completed with one dollar of indebtedness, and any person can make known at any time what they will give when the whole is raised to complete the building free of debt, thereby making it possible for the board of directors to work intelligently. The present needs are pressing for the completion of the work at once. Sacrifices should be made if necessary, for any institution so general and public spirited, and also far reaching in its results. The money invested in this building will bring to Janesville larger returns, better dividends and more cheerful homes than words can tell. The fact that that hundreds of conservative business men give from $5000 to $50000 in nearly every city where these buildings are erected, is a proof of their worth and power. Here is an opportunity of great importance, and now is the time to act.

A LIBERAL SUBSCRIBER.

BATES MAKES A GHOST WALK

Deed to Mechanics Green Given by a Man Three Weeks Dead.

J. W. Bates may have considerable trouble before he makes good his claim to Mechanics Green, the Beloit park. According to Bates, Horace White died November, 1843, but as a matter of record, Horace White and wife gave a warranty deed to the property now owned by Mrs. Goodwin to Harry W. Bundy and Lucius G. Fisher, on December 7, 1843. The Beloit News suggests:

"According to Bates the ghost of the departed must have returned to transfer the property and if this is true what is to hinder the ghost from coming back and deeding Mechanics Green to the city of Beloit after it was incorporated. Beware! Bates, or your phantom will go up in smoke."

THREE CANDIDATES FROM BELOIT

W. H. Appleby, Silas Menzie and Rufus H. Sharp Will Be in the Race.

BELOIT, July 25—Heretofore this city has been shabbily treated, from a political standpoint, by the remainder of the county, and this fall she hopes to receive a more cordial welcome in the convention, and to place one, if not two men on the county ticket. Among the aspirants in the county for the office of sheriff, the name of William H. Appleby, the present city marshal of this city, is frequently heard. Mr. Appleby will undoubtedly have a large following of delegates from outside the city. Silas Menzie is hustling around for the nomination as district attorney, and quite frequently the name of Rufus H. Sharp is mentioned in connection with the office of register of deeds.

JUDGE SALE PROPOSES TO HELP THE Y. M. C. A.

There is Need of $5000, and the Judge Agrees to Give a Tenth of It if Nine Others Will Do the Same—Secretary Kline Is Much Encouraged.

Who will be the nine men in Janesville who will join Judge John W. Sale and give the Young Men's Christian Association five thousand dollars? That is the question now being seriously considered by Secretary Kline of the association, and by his colleagues. A number of prominent citizens are also seriously thinking the matter over and wondering how their autographs would look on the subscription paper with a $5000 appendix.

Secretary Kline is now soliciting funds to wipe out the indebtedness. Judge Sale believes that while Janesville is able to support sixty saloons, the people certainly ought to be able to support one Y. M. C. A., and especially free the building fund from liability. After seriously considering the matter, he put his name down on the subscription paper for $500, with a proviso, that the money is not to be paid until nine other citizens subscribe a like amount.

"I believe there are men in Janesville who will come forward and subscribe this sum of money," said Judge Sale this morning. "I know of no object more worthy in the city than to provide such a place as this where young men can congregate and enjoy themselves, and not be surrounded by immoral influences. I hope it will succeed, and will be only too glad to hear that nine men have subscribed the necessary amount."

Mighty is the Truth.

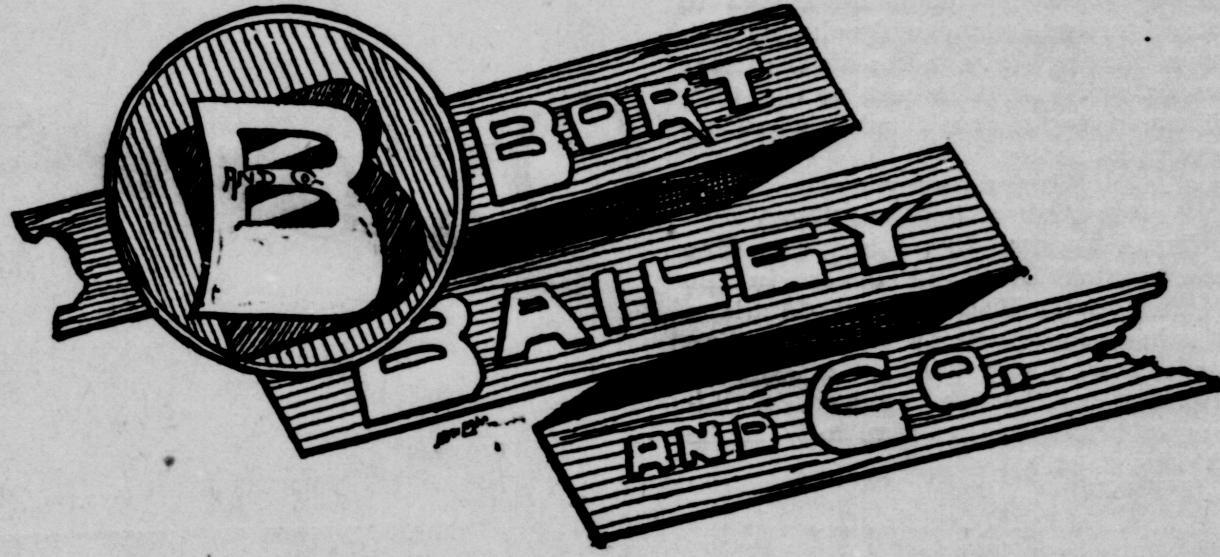

And it will prevail! Against unheralded competition and spurious imitation, the genuine efficacy of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, always has and always will prevail. The public recognize it everywhere as the chief preventive of malaria, and a reliable specific for dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism, kidney trouble, biliousness and loss of appetite. Efforts made by irresponsible dealers to compete with it by indirect means have and will continue to fail upon the heads, and it may be added, the pockets of those making them. Through the length and breadth of the American continent it is the acknowledged household remedy, reliable and prompt. It relies upon facts, upon public experience, and upon the emphatic commendation of the medical fraternity.

Breaking the News Gently.

It is related that it once fell to an Acheson man to break the news to a woman that her husband had been killed. "Do you know," he said, calling at her house, "that with your light hair and pretty complexion you would break every heart in town if you dressed as a widow?" She blushed and laughed. "And you are one," he added. "Your husband was just blown to atoms down in the boiler works, but then black is so becoming to you."

Another Use for Paper.

Among the latest things made out of paper are artificial straws for sipping cobbles and various iced drinks. Everybody knows that real straws are apt to be defective, but the imitations never fail to draw. After they are rolled they are treated with paraffine to render them watertight and nonabsorbent. The same patent covers mouthpieces for cigarettes, which are manufactured in a similar fashion.

Paul Bourget still lingers in this country. He is immensely interested in his studies of American life and enjoys living here. He is a man of medium height, with a youthful face, light hair and eyes and an olive complexion. He wears a monocle, which, with his dress and his nonchalant manner, gives him the air more of an Englishman than a Parisian. He has written some articles about this country, and he is reported to be at work on an American novel.

The abandonment this year of two more Indian companies of infantry has led to the suggestion that the present plan of enlisting the red men in troops and companies of their own in the regular regiments will gradually be given up.

A hundred acres of flowering peas, making a sea of beautiful color and gales of sweet odor, is what the visitor finds on the estate of Timothy Hopkins at Menlo Park, Cal. Sixty-four distinct varieties are raised for seed there this year and the business is constantly growing.

There are more working days in the year of the American workman than of any other save the Hungarian. The latter works 312 days in the year, and thus has almost no holiday save Sunday. The number of working days in the American year is 308. This is the same as the Dutch; it is 30 days more than the English, 41 days more than the Russian, and from 6 to 18 days more than the working year of any other European country.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

It will astonish you how quick Johnson's Magic Oil will kill a pain. Sold at Smith's pharmacy; 25 and 50 cent

Pitt did not use the expression, "The atrocious crime of being a young man." The words were used by Dr. Johnson, who was not present, but wrote a report of the speech from an abstract given him by a hearer.

Vinegar will not split rocks. So Hannibal could not thus have made his way through the Alps. Nor will it dissolve pearls. So that the story of Cleopatra drinking pearls melted in vinegar must have been a fiction.

That oily and rough skin cured and the face and hands beautified by Johnson's Oriental soap; medicated and highly perfumed. Sold at Smith's Pharmacy.

 1892—Bay City, Mich., partly destroyed by fire, many persons burned to death and $1,000,000 in property lost.

THERE IS BUT ONE ENEMY.

Republicans never showed so united a front in state convention as was manifest today. The misgovernment they have seen in state and nation has spurred them to unusual vehemence. They meet to face a common foe, and no struggle on the floor of the convention hall will divert their eyes from the point of attack. Whatever contest there may be over nominations will end in peace and good feeling the moment the choice is made, and no one will fight harder for the success of the ticket in November than will the men who step aside at the summons of the convention today.

RIOTS AMAZE HIM.

From other lands America gets a lesson. Fred Hirsch, a Belgian manufacturer employing 12,000 men, discussed American labor troubles with a Chicago reporter the other day and made these significant comments:

"I am," said he, "amazed at the discontent manifested among the working people of this country, and especially at that phase of it that has manifested itself in riots and introduced acts of violence. In my country, Belgium, where the people are the least governed in the world, such rioting as has occurred day after day in this great city would not have been tolerated, or rather endured. There would have been somebody hurt, the mob speedily dispersed, and the rioters arrested and swiftly punished.

"We employ 12,000 men, and they are industrious, contented, and trustworthy men; and I want to say that I have observed in this country men of my own country who were never able to earn more than 65 cents a day in your money receiving $1.25 and 1.50 and more per day, and yet they are dissatisfied, and I am sorry to know they are among the most riotous and lawless, especially, as I am informed, in the coal regions. I can in part account for this. They are the most undesirable of our population, little inclined to work, preferring idleness, and when they did work they were not able to earn much. It is this class that emigrated to this country, and they have been assisted away from home because they were a burden upon the industrious and provident people of our country. You have received the scum of our country. There undesirable, here they have become a menace.

"It seems strange to me that your laborers are not dealt with promptly and positively.

"The labor conditions have adjusted themselves largely, in Europe. The law ordains the settlement of difficulties between employer and employee, but when any difficulty is settled by law neither employer nor employee dare dispute it."

Restricted immigration and compulsory arbitration. These are the suggestions given by Mr. Hirsch and they are suggestions that may well be heeded.

A GOOD BUSINESS.

Before spending $1,000,000 to exterminate the Russian thistle it will be well for the government to inquire if any weed ever has been or ever could be driven out of a country by organized effort. The contractors receiving the million would be apt to keep a few seed in order to get another million. Weeds are said to be plants misunderstood, but some of the patriots who love the old flag and an appropriation are beginning to appreciate them too highly. There ought not to be more money in killing one kind of weed than in raising wheat.

In picking out gubernatorial timber this year New York republicans will doubtless aim to put up somebody who can be a presidential availability. A man of that character, if he should carry his state by 25,000 or 30,000 in 1894, would be a potent figure in the convention of 1896.

Free sugar, refined as well as raw, is what the republican congressmen will stand out for in the present wrangle with the democracy.

The continuation of the tariff deadlock ten days longer will mean that the McKinley law will stick. That prospect satisfies the country.

Our gold loss this year is greater than it was in 1893 at this time, but the turn in the tide must soon come now.

BRIGGS BADLY HURT AND CART WRECKED.

JOHN SWEET'S DISASTROUS TRIP TO THE RACES.

Horses Get Beyond the Reinsman's Control and Make a Short Turn That Results in a Catastrophe—Hamilton Utley To Run for Congress—Brief Local Notes.

RICHARD BRIGGS was seriously injured this afternoon, by the partial wrecking of John Sweet's jaunting car on West Milwaukee street. Mr. Sweet hitched up his tandem and with half a dozen guests of the Grand started for the driving park. The load on a down grade was too heavy for one horse in the thills to hold back, and before they had gone a block the horses were under pretty good headway. Finally they became unmanageable, and commenced to run. They made a short turn and all the men were thrown heavily to the pavement, the cart tipping over on its side. Briggs fell on his head and shoulders and was injured internally. He fainted several times while being cared for in Tarrant & Osgood's grocery. Afterwards he was taken to the Grand Hotel, where Dr. Pender attended him. The other gentlemen escaped with slight scratches, although covered with mud.

We are working for you. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

"If the gentleman will approach the altar and receive instructions," etc., was the somewhat unusual terms used by Chairman Dr. Bishop, of Fond du Lac, in the Oshkosh convention, Friday, when he desired to instruct a delegate as to some routine duties. SUCH RACING SEEN IN BUT FEW TOWNS

TWO REMARKABLE CONTESTS MAKE A GREAT DAY.

Nobody Dared To Try Picking Favorites Last Night—Nearly All the Horses Were Believed To Have a Chance—Track Record in Imminent Danger.

A horseman smart enough to pick a winner in two of today's races at the Janesville track does not live in the United States.

He'd have to be in league with the devil and a deacon in the church both; a combination but rarely found among horsemen.

When starter R. W. McElroy called the 2:19 pacers a field answered that would drive a "hoss crank" crazy. Seventeen answered. Their records varied from 2:25 down to 2:19.

Book-makers simply put the lot up at auction and you "paid your money and took your choice." The entries were: John C. blk g, Contest, b g, Nathan P., b g, Meacham, b g, Bovee K., br h, Etta B., gr m, Little Johnny, b g, Lallah Rook, br m, Hal Pulaski, b h, Billy Bessell, gr g, Rambling Dick, b g, Dr. Manker, ch h, Frank Smith, ch h, Harry Brown, b g, Benlah Boy, b g, Alice Director, br m, Flask.

Trotting Race a Hummer.

The 2:16 trotting race was the one that made the horsemen risk money last night. When the poolsters opened for business last night there was no favorite marked on the board. You paid for your choice and that was all. In the race were the following horses and their records:

The Conqueror, ch h (2:17); Winnie H., b m (2:18); Mollie Sprague, ch m (2:20); Kate Phallamont, b m (2:19); Maggie N., ch m (2:17); Maggie Sherman, ch m, (2:18); St. Louis, bh (2:20); Sunrise Prince b h (2:21); Kate F., b m (2:17); Revolt, b h (2:19); Gratton, blk h (2:17); Nina Medium, br m (2:17); Maud Wright, b m (2:22); Nominee, b g (2:17); Milton, b g (2:22); Jerry L., gr g (2:17); Alta, blk m (2:17).

Many of these records have been cut since the list was made out but it shows ten horses that have beaten 2:19.

Eleven In the 2:30 Class.
Eleven horses were in the 2:30 class they being as follows: Kingston, br g, King Swigert, b h, Athol, Jack Riley, b h, Major Ewing, b h, Minnie Monroe, b m, William Tell, b g, Waverley, ch g, Sandy L., ch g, Clarence Phallamont, c c, Prince N.

Track Record In Danger.

Many horsemen said last night that the track record would be in danger this afternoon and it is pretty certain that it will be broken before the meeting is over. The record was made by Blonde, a ch h, by Brunswick Chief when he paced a mile in a race in 2:14 which is his record. The uncertainties of racing are shown by the fact that, although Blonde made this mile here at Midland, Mich., the other day he got but sixth place in a race run in 2:17.

When Starter McElroy got the 2:19 horses lined up Flash took the lead and was not headed, leading John C. by a half length while the latter beat Alice Director for second place by a neck in 2:16.

Before the 2:16 trotters got the word Sunrise Prince had developed into a favorite and drawn the pole. When they finally got off it was with Alta ahead but with all in a bunch they went around. Sunrise Prince pushing his nose out of a bunch of six and winning by a neck.

A camera was necessary to get the finish and the decision of the judges was withheld until a print could be developed, which would take ten minutes.

ADJOURNMENT IDEA KNOCKED OUT

Effort To Put Cooper's Nomination Off for Two Weeks Defeated.

While it has been generally understood that there was to be no opposition to the renomination of Congressman Cooper, still the action of the Racine county convention on Saturday in ignoring the claims of J. G. Monahan for the governorship stirred up a hornet's nest, and some of the shrewd politicians of the inland counties sought to make capital out of the Racine county convention to the extent of forcing an adjournment for two weeks in order that Racine's delegates might be held in obedience for their particular candidate for governor especially for ex-Congressman Caswell. J. D. Cole of Jefferson county, a son-in-law of Mr. Caswell, and a prominent Rock county man was understood to be backing this scheme, but Racine knocked the adjournment scheme out. Rock county was represented in the convention by Arthur Broughton, J. S. Lynch, W. H. Appleby, L. H. Parker, F. B. Helmer, H. F. Bliss, R. R. Winston, U. G. Waite, A. S. Flagg, C. S. Downing, Charles W. Weirick, James P. Shields.

FINED FOR A FIGHT ON A FARM.

William Myers Called Upon to Pay $5 For His Pugacious Actions.

William Myers, who is a tenant on the Dullian farm, formerly the Baines farm, was brought into the municipal court this morning on a warrant charging him with assault and battery, the complaining witness being W. H. Dullian. The trouble grew out of a dispute on the farm, Myers refusing to listen to any interference on the part of the owner. Myers was adjudged guilty and fined $5 and costs. In default of payment he was committed to the county jail for five days. Shortly after being assigned a room at the jail the fine was paid by relatives and he was discharged.

No Pockets in Shrouds.

You should bear it in mind that there are no pockets in shrouds. No matter if you are a millionaire, you will have no use for a pocket when you come to don your last robe. You can't take anything with you. Some people live as though they could. The best way is to take some pleasure out of your hard-earned dollars as you go along. "Live while you live. You'll be dead a long time." Your children can get more solid enjoyment out of those pony wagons we build to fit any sized pony, than anything else.

PAVING IS PROBABLE ON THREE STREETS.

CHARLES T. WILCOX WANTS IMPROVEMENTS EXTENDED.

East Milwaukee Street To Be Attended to Before the End of the Summer, He Declares—Academy and West Milwaukee Street People Interested.

"I propose to have a portion of East Milwaukee street paved this season, if I have to do it myself," said C. T. Wilcox this morning. "If the rest of the property owners refuse to pave the street I mean to pave the street in front of my property myself. I can't see any reason for holding back. The improvement is so marked that I am anxious for the pavement as soon as it can be brought about."

Some three weeks ago Mr. Wilcox and Fred Jones circulated a petition for paving from Main to Bluff street. The petition was generally signed by property owners on Bluff street, but those east of Bluff objected, some wanting the pavement extended to Division street, while others wanted it extended to East street.

"I have seen a large number of property owners," said Fred Jones. "and I believe a large majority will sign to have the street paved the entire length to East street. Some of the Milton avenue property owners want a section of that avenue paved. I am sure, however, that Milwaukee street to Division street will be paved this season, and maybe it will extend to East street."

West Side Paving In View.

Alderman Ed. Smith has been quietly circulating a petition for the paving of West Milwaukee street from High to Academy street, and the paper has been generally signed by property owners on that street. "I will present the petition at the next council meeting," said the Fifth ward alderman this morning. "I have more than a majority of names now, but I want them all. The petition is for a pavement similar to that on South Main street, now being put down."

Academy street property owners are also agitating the blocking of Academy street from Milwaukee to the railway tracks, thus completing a pavement from all the business portions of the city to the passenger depots. This is an improvement which will cause all who travel over these business streets to rejoice.

Contractor Martin completed his South River street paving contract last evening, and began laying blocks on Main street today.

HANDMADE LINGERIE.

Costs a Small Fortune and Demands Special Care.

Every now and then some writer on the subject of the wardrobe comes out with the discouraging statement that no woman of refinement will wear undergarments not made by hand. This would seem to be rather a broad generalization, arguing that only women of great wealth deserve to be considered refined, for handmade clothes cost a small fortune and therefore demand special care in the laundry. There are millions of well dressed and well bred women who wear machine sewed underclothing because they cannot afford the outlay for handmade garments and can still less afford to keep a servant especially to do fine washing. Delicate clothing sent to the best of laundries comes back eaten to holes by chemicals and torn by careless handling. Unless one is able to engage a skilled maid to take entire charge of all delicate washable articles it is foolish extravagance to pay $7 or $8 for the simplest sort of a nightgown and for other garments in proportion. Washed in the usual way, the stock of underwear has to be continually replenished, and at the rate of cost mentioned it would take all of an average woman's allowance to keep her in lingerie. Of course she can make it herself if she has no more improving way of spending her time and eyesight. Her grandmother did so, but in her grandmother's day there were no sewing machines, and underwear could not, as a rule, be bought ready made. Not only was the young lady of olden days satisfied with a very plain outfit, but her washing was far better done. The undergarments of the women of 75 or 100 years ago lasted half a lifetime, but the same garments under the present laundry system would not last six months. When neat and pretty clothing, made of good muslin and carefully finished, can be bought at such a moderate price as it is sold for at present, it would be a silly woman who would refuse to wear it because it is sewed by machine unless she was a millionaire, who could afford every luxury in keeping. And it would be an equally silly woman who would sit stooping over her needle hours in succession making clothing destined to endure very little longer than the length of time consumed in its preparation.

USES OF ALCOHOL.

It May Be Employed in Innumerable Ways. A Handsome House Gown.

Alcohol is one of the most useful adjuncts of the toilet table, as many persons know. Cologne in the bath is often recommended, but it is beneficial chiefly on account of the alcohol which is its basis. Used once a week mixed with water it stimulates the skin, makes it smooth and keeps it in good condition. Pure alcohol rubbed on the neck, shoulders and arms before going out in evening dress in the winter will act as a preventive of catching cold. After painful or exhausting experiences, like a morning at the dentist's, for instance, a cloth wet with alcohol rubbed briskly over the face and throat will revive one greatly.

Alcohol will take oil paint off the hands, and the best spirits of camphor can be made at home by putting gum camphor in a bottle and pouring alcohol over it. Alcohol also affords relief from the pain of insect bites and stings and is usually effective when applied as a liniment for lameness, strains or weak muscles. It is often used thus as a daily treatment for weakly infants and children, with favorable results. In fact, its uses are innumerable, from cleaning jewelry to washing the face, but it must not be spilled on lacquered silver toilet articles, as it dissolves the transparent varnish and leaves the silver exposed to the air, which soon turns it black.

Pink is greatly favored in Paris for tea and house gowns just now. Alone and in combination with white and colors, it is much used. An illustration is given of a house gown of white embroidered gauze. The full gauge skirt is made over a skirt of pink taffeta, and a ruche of the same material trims the bottom. The blouse bodice is of taffeta and is gathered in at the waist by a belt of rose moire, with long ends. The gauze pelerine is made over a taffeta lining and trimmed with a taffeta ruche. The sleeves are of gauze similarly lined and trimmed. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Search has been instituted in New York for Sophie Neumann, who in 1876 eloped from the Netherlands with Adolf Nohl, a good-looking but shiftless young man. Sophie's brother has just died, leaving her a $400,000 sugar plantation. Nohl died in New Jersey in 1886 and his widow has been lost track of.

After William French of Ashland, Wis., had been sent to jail for life for shooting a man, James H. Duket married Mrs. French. It was jealousy of Duket that led to the crime. Now French has been released pending a new trial and Duket has been arrested, notwithstanding his plea that the sentence was a statutory divorce.

The latest novelty in social organization is the six-finger club. This is not the prescribed size of the drink, but the particular number of fingers each member must have on at least one hand. The records of the club show that there are 2,173 persons in the world with six fingers on each hand, and 431 with seven fingers. One individual is the proud possessor of eight fingers on one hand.

IDLE MOMENTS.

Bookish—Have you read "A Costly Freak"? Poorly—No; I've done it; got married.

Gilhooley—I wonder why wars are not as prolonged now as they were in ancient times? Mrs. Gilhooley—It must be because divorce comes easier.

"My wife and I had a lively discussion last night," said the mild-mannered man. "But I got the last word." "You don't say so!" "Yes. She acknowledged it herself this morning." "How did you manage it?" "Talked in my sleep."

First Nighter—The man who writes the dramatic criticisms for your paper doesn't know a good play from a bad one. Editor—I know it, but what can we do? He is the only man on the staff who is tall enough to see over the bonnets.

Aunt Maria—I think you and Mr. Mann ought to get along nicely together. You know you both like the same people. Matilda—Yes, and what is better, we hate the same people. Just think what nice long talks we shall have together.

A young married couple from Texas were doing Niagara falls. They were conducted under the falls by the guide. "You must take care now, for if you let your foot slip you will be lost," said the guide. "Jane, you go ahead," said the man.

The Seven Hells.

The Moslem's believe in the existence of "Seven Great Hot Hells" bearing the names of Jahannam, Latha, Hutamah, Sa'ir, Sakar, Jehim and al-Kariah. The first is to be the endless abode of the Dahriyah, a sect which denies the creation; the second for Manichees and Arabs, the third for Brahman's the fourth for the Jews; the fifth for Christians and the sixth for the Magians. The seventh, the "great, great, hot, hot hell," is to be reserved for liars and hypocrites.

Tolstoi on Ibsen.

Blumenthal, the great theater manager of Berlin, was once talking with Tolstoi about Ibsen, and said: "I have put a good many of his plays on the stage, but I can't say that I quite understand them. Do you understand them?" "Ibsen doesn't understand them himself," Tolstoi replied; "he just writes them, and then sits down and waits. After a while his expounders and explainers come and tell him what he meant."

Savages and Iron.

The Baluban tribe of Central Africa are famous for their skill in casting their forging iron. They construct tall cylindrical conical furnaces of clay with tuyeres of clay and an ingeniously devised wooden bellows. They make arms for hunting and for war, and collars and bracelets of iron. The neighboring natives resort to them in great numbers to exchange their own products for the manufactures of the Balubas.

The Rising Generation.... Sat down in comfortable pews Sunday, that is a proportion of it did and the sweet young teacher began to question: "Johnnie, why did Lot's wife look back?" "To see if her skirt hung right" replied Johnnie. A grieved look came over the fair young face as she turned to the next young hopeful and asked: "Where did Adam and Eve go when they were turned out of the garden for eating the apple, Teddie?" "To the nearest drugstore after Jamaica ginger." Tears came, but she turned to Jimmie. "Now, Jimmie, why was Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt?" "'Cause she was too fresh." The classed adjourned to a vacant lot. There was evidently a put up job somewhere. We've been putting up a job on

WHERE SHOULD CITY FUNDS GO?

City Treasurer Refuses to Deposit Them Where the Council Directs.

At the meeting of the Racine city council last night a resolution was adopted making the Union National bank the city depository, the said bank to pay 2 1/2 per cent. on all daily deposits of the city treasurer, and to give a bond in the sum of $150,000. The city treasurer is banking with another bank and claims that the action of the council is illegal and will refuse to deposit the money where designated by the city. An interesting legal contest is expected, and the case may reach the supreme court.
